

A short break at Center Parcs allows families to create their own experience, where they are free to do as much or as little as they like. In 2019, we're bringing our unique and unrivalled family short breaks to Longford Forest in The Midlands region of Ireland.

Set in hundreds of acres of beautiful forest, our new Center Parcs resort – Longford Forest - will welcome 250,000 guests each year, providing the very best facilities and activities. To transform our vision into a reality, we're looking for an incredible and unstoppable team of around 1,000 employees – and this is a unique opportunity to be involved from the start.

ABOUT THE ROLE

Center Parcs is all about embracing the great outdoors and spending some quality time in nature. Our Outdoor Pursuits departments consist of 'Watersports' and 'Action Challenge' where we offer a wide range of exciting and extreme activities for all ages and abilities, including; Aerial Adventure, Tree trekking, Indoor climbing, Raft building and Craft Hire and we are now looking for team leaders to join us in May 2019.

As a Team Leader you will be required to assist the Outdoor Pursuits management team in delivering a safe and quality operation. You will assist in maintaining excellent guest care and setting high standards in building management and help to motivate and develop team members. You will be required to deputise for the Assistant Managers in their absence.

The role will differ initially to when the resort is open and fully operational so flexibility, adaptability and a willingness to help out as required are key requirements.

Due to the sensitive nature of this role the successful applicant will be required to undergo Garda Vetting. This disclosure, together with other selection information, will need to be satisfactory to the Company for employment to commence.

ABOUT YOU

Essential requirements:

- Supervisory experience in managing team and volume activities (minimum 1 year)
- Good basic general education
- Computer literacy

Desirable requirements:

- Previous experience of Outdoor Sports activities
